EUMUNDI SCHOOL OF ARTS

WELCOME TO THE 2023 SUNSHINE SOUNDS FESTIVAL!

We warmly welcome you to our third Sunshine Sounds Festival.

We would like to acknowledge the traditional owners of the Country we make sounds on together today – The Gubbi Gubbi Peoples – and pay our respects to elders of the past, elders of the present and the emerging elders of ‘the glad tomorrow’ (Oodgeroo Noonuccal).

Emerging like a phoenix from the ashes, the Sunshine Sounds Festival is an opportunity to acknowledge homegrown artistry on Gubbi Gubbi Country.

Presented by KIN Music, we’ve set out to create a festival that really brings people of all ages together. Gathering through music is so important for the soul, for community spirit and connection.

We are very proud to deliver our third festival and super happy to share that the festival programming is 100% Aussie and almost entirely local!

Sunshine Sounds Festival has been generously supported by The Federal Government’s Office for the Arts Live Music Australia Programme. We also received integral local support from the The Eumundi District Community Association for the 3rd time, and we are so grateful for their ongoing support.

Alongside this cash support, we have partnered with our friends at the Sunshine Coast Council’s Horizon Festival for the first time this year and we’ve also received wonderful venue support from the Eumundi District Historical Association and the CWA Hall Eumundi, alongside fabulous support from local businesses Starry Nights Movies, Sunshine & Sons and Your Mates Brewery.

Our Eumundi School of Music scholarship programme has a host of wonderful sponsors – you can read more about them on page 4 and at www.eumundischoolofmusic.com

This festival is all about supporting local artists and businesses and encouraging the next generation of music makers. We firmly believe in the transformational power of the arts to bring people together and help us realise our commonality rather than our difference.

For all patrons in attendance at the Sunshine Sounds Festival, we ask for you to be respectful of other patrons’ personal space and stay hygienic by washing your hands regularly.

We want everyone to have a good time. We do not tolerate discrimination of any kind nor anti-social/aggressive behaviour.

Management reserves the right to refuse admission or remove ticket-holders displaying behaviour which is likely to cause damage or injury to themselves or others.

Please drink responsibly – this is an all ages family friendly gathering so please be mindful of little ones around.

If you or your friend are not feeling well, please feel comfortable to approach our festival crew and we will seek help for you.

Here at Sunshine Sounds Festival, we want everyone to have the best time possible!

Be kind, look after each other and most of all soak up the big-hearted groove of this truly special community festival in our patch of paradise!

ARTISTS

FRENTE 'MARVIN THE ALBUM' 30TH ANNIVERSARY

From the beer soaked carpet of the Punters Club in Fitzroy to massive international stages, Frente have won hearts with singles such as Ordinary Angels, Labour of Love and their acoustic take on New Order's Bizarre Love Triangle.

While the world was celebrating all things grunge, Frente's blend of alternative and folk pop set them apart. The honesty of the performances and recordings, the thoughtful quirky riffs of Simon's guitar, Angie's unique vocals as an Australian female singer singing in her native accent.

Join them as they celebrate the 30th anniversary of the release of their era-defining record 'Marvin the Album' with a very special vinyl and digital re-release and national tour. With special guests ESOM Alumni Lochie Kapper - guitar / Oscar Jackson - bass / Dexter Hurren - drums

ELIXIR W/ MICHAEL LEUNIG + KATIE NOONAN + STRING QUARTET

Elixir's 4th album 'A Small Shy Truth' will be based on the poetry of Melbourne born and based poet Michael Leunig (b. 1945).

Elixir was founded in 1997 by Katie Noonan, Nick Stewart and River Petein. Saxophonist Zac Hurren (Katie's partner of 24 years) joined in 2019, guitarist Stephen Magnusson joined in 2005, and in 2019 they introduced guitarist Benjamin Hauptmann to their trio.

Their initial self-titled album 'Elixir' (2003) #1 ARIA Jazz chart, #2 ARIA Australian Artist chart, their 2nd album 'First Seed Ripening' (2011) was #1 ARIA Jazz chart for 9 weeks and won the ARIA Best Jazz album of the year and their 3rd album 'Gratitude and Grief' (2018) was nominated for the 2018 ARIA best Jazz album.

'A Small Shy Truth' will feature the compositions of the three band members - National Jazz Award, ARIA Award winning and Freedman Jazz Fellowship finalist saxophonist/composer Zac Hurren, Freedman Jazz Fellowship winning and National Jazz Award finalist guitarist Benjamin Hauptmann and 5 x ARIA, AWMA, AIR and APRA award winning musician Katie Noonan. Violin 1 - Sarah King / Violin 2 - Eugenie Costello / Viola - Anna Colville / Cello - Louise King

ABBY DOBSON (LEONARDO'S BRIDE)

Abby Dobson has had a wonderful career as a singer and songwriter.

She has released two solo albums of her original compositions, called It's Okay, Sweetheart, and Rise Up, that she co-produced. She was also a founding member of the hugely successfully band Leonardo's Bride, their chart-topping song, Even When I'm Sleeping, winning APRA's 'Song of the Year' and later voted as one of the 'Top 20 Australian Songs of All Time'.

She has also released three albums with her magnifique band Baby et Lulu, penning and performing songs in French and touring around the country. She has won awards for her songwriting, singing and recordings and is a highly regarded Australian artist.

DELINE BRISCOE

Yalanji woman of song, Deline Briscoe is a unique artist who has been fine tuning her songwriting and performance skills for two decades, touring worldwide as a principal artist with the Black Arm Band, and more recently as a solo artist touring with a unique combination of musicians including Airileke (Yothu Yindi), and Stephen Maxwell (Jimmy Cliff).

Deline's powerful set features percussive bite, blues grit and jazz infused vocals. Her interweaving of Wungkabadi (Yalanji traditional song) with jazz roots, driven by Bama (First Nations) harmonies, is a unique sound from the Far North QLD region.

CLEA

Ethereal, multi-disciplinary artist Clea will release her new album 'Idle Light' on Fri June 16 via Dew Process.

Her latest single Exit Game follows the intoxicating and dreamy mix of songs

Listen Up, Easy To Forgive, I Wanna Be Alive and last month's new moon special Crash Land.

"Exit Game is the moment you hit rock bottom and suddenly you can see clearly through the façade of the situation and/or the people surrounding you. You then have the choice of staying where you are or using the opportunity to approach life in a manner more suited to your true nature." - Clea

You will either find yourself in a state of bliss or existential questioning upon listening to her self-described 'mantra pop'.

ELLIOTT

Emerging Australian singer songwriter Elliott has built an ever-growing following with alternate-pop songs that are vulnerable and heartfelt - and a soul-drenched voice that can mesmerise any room in the world in a heartbeat.

Since the release of her first EP 'Bold Enough', she's accumulated over 20 million streams, toured internationally and domestically with Dean Lewis and Matt Corby, and received effusive critical affirmation from music's most mainstream and progressive media.

She headed back into the studio in early 2022 with producer/artist Gab Strum (AKA Japanese Wallpaper). There's no doubt that making the most defining music of her career to date has galvanised Elliott's faith in her own creative instincts and sharpened what she wants to say to the world.

SUE RAY

Sue Ray, winner of the 2022 Blues 'n' Roots QLD Music award, is a First Nations artist that captivates audiences with her original brand of country/blues and roots music.

Often compared to artists like Bonnie Raitt, Chris Stapleton and Lucinda Williams, Sue brings an intimate and witty charm to her performances that makes her unforgettable. An artist who will surprise and impress you with her enchanting voice and songwriting that tugs right at the heartstrings.

Over the years, Sue has also accrued awards and nominations, from 'Most Promising New Talent' in the 2013 Deadly Awards to 'Female Artist of the Year' in the QLD Music Awards. In 2012, 'Red Roses' was nominated for 'Country Album of the Year' in the AIR Independent Music Awards. In 2022, Sue's track Take Me Away won Best Blues 'n' Roots track at the QMusic Awards.

CIGÁNY WEAVER

Fusing the passion of folk music, the precision of classical, and the spontaneity of jazz, Cigány Weaver create a rich and vibrant atmosphere for both the heart and mind.

Front woman Jo Davie's soaring vocals and enchanting gentle demeanour combine with the fiery violin, dynamic guitars and driving rhythm section to create a purely acoustic group that effortlessly navigates the musical nexus between intimacy and raucousness.

JUNGAJI

Jungaji (formerly Troy Brady) is a First Nations Gu Gu Yalanji songman, visual artist, playwright, and activist. He has embarked on a new creative path, fusing RnB/Soul to create a unique and authentic sound that showcases his cultural roots.

After undergoing a deep cultural transformation, Jungaji has found a profound understanding of his identity and is now dedicated to sharing his authentic voice and artistic testimony with the world. His new music will be available on all streaming platforms from August 2023.

Jungaji has recently performed at prestigious events such as the St Kilda Festival 2023, Adelaide Fringe Festival 2023 (Award for Best Music Performance) and the Yonder Festival, where he wowed audiences with his dynamic band. With his multi-talented artistic abilities, Jungaji is a force to be reckoned with in the music industry and beyond.

FRED LEONE

Fred Leone is one of the Butchulla Songmen with Aboriginal, Tongan and South-Sea Islander roots. He comes from the Garrwa and Butchulla tribes.

Fred's role as a Songman sees him as one of the custodians of traditional Butchulla songs and one of a handful of keepers and custodians of their language. Fred blends his love of hip-hop rhyming and his singularly unique vocal style with his adeptness at playing traditional instruments in a modern context to create an utterly new and unique sound.

He's known for his abilities to transcend genre and form whilst bringing the true integrity of his life's calling as a Songman to the forefront all that he touches.

LOUISE KING

Louise King is an independent, cross-cultural, contemporary cellist, equally comfortable in the sonic worlds of new music, experimental improvisation, classical, jazz and global folk traditions. She is an Australian-based, internationally-trained, award-winning cellist, living on Gubbi Gubbi country, Sunshine Coast.

Her music combines the virtuosity of classical music with intuitive improvisation, sculpting soundscapes from loops, hypnotic grooves, ambient electronics, field recordings, and soaring melodies. Louise "exudes a vigorous artistry that surely appeals to a younger generation of music lovers" (The Australian) and has worked with leading Australian artists such as Kate Miller-Heidke, Katie Noonan, Jack Carty, Karl Williams, Ziggy Alberts, Eric Avery, Joe Geia, and Fred Leone.

SUGARBAG BLONDE

Supporting Australian music luminaries like Thirsty Merc, Russell Morris and celebrated blues rock organ player, Lachy Doley, Sugarbag Blonde are carving a name for themselves in rock and blues rock circles, with their unique breed of original music and finely crafted songs. Most recently the band have kicked off a new 'Live in Store' series of shows from Australia's premier music store Mooloolaba Music.

Coinciding with this, the band have produced a brand new two-part live album, recorded as part of the series. Sugarbag Blonde are currently distributed worldwide by MGM Distribution.

MARK MORONEY

Mark Moroney is a musical alchemist, with a deep honeyed voice and finger style guitar playing resonating with the warmth of a crackling fire. His songs are like well-crafted tapestries, each thread carefully woven to tell a story of life's journey, love's twists and turns, and the complexities of the human experience.

Acclaimed entertainer Darren Percival has called him "Australia's luminous song writer" with his original music transporting the listener into the very heart of the story. Mark is a graduate from the Queensland Conservatorium of Music and is a previous finalist in the Queensland Music Awards and Music Oz awards for his original works. He has collectively shared the stage with and supported artists such as Katie Noonan, Darren Percival, James Reyne, Renee Geyer, Jeff Lang, Chris Smither, Steve Poltz and The Black Sorrows.

FRANK AND LOUIS

Frank and Louis are two young local brothers with a growing following on the Sunshine Coast and musical talent beyond their years.

Louis is the main singer in their band of brothers and his unique, mesmerising indie-folk vocal style is accompanied by Frank's close harmonies, finger style guitar, harmonica and foot drums.

They are winners of the Under 18 Australian National Busking Championships and, like their musical heroes, they work hard at their craft - busking almost every weekend since they were 11 and 12.

Their original songs gained them a place in the finals of the Bluesfest Busking Championships and a coveted spot playing at Bluesfest last year.

In 2022 they were the youngest artists to be accepted to play at Caloundra Music Festival and winners of 'Rockfest', the Australia-wide Battle of the Bands for Australian Schools.

EUMUNDI SCHOOL OF MUSIC BANDS

Eumundi School of Music is a not-for-profit 3-month music mentoring and tuition program that offers 20+ scholarships to Sunshine Coast students from Grades 3 to 8 plus a Teenage Super Band of rockers aged Grade 9-12 and a Show Band featuring the strongest kids of the previous year.

The musicians are chosen through an audition process headed up by five-time ARIA award-winning and seven times platinum artist Katie Noonan and team.

Our ESOM rock bands also get some incredible professional live performance experience, having played at Woodford Folk Festival, Horizon Festival, Park Sounds, The Little Day Out, The Gympie Muster and Sunshine Sounds Festival.

LAYLA HAVANA & BAND

Fourteen year old First Nations singer and songwriter Layla Havana is from the Sunshine Coast. Layla started singing in 2020 when she was accepted into the Eumundi School of Music program. Since then, she has been fortunate to be mentored by five-time ARIA Award-winning artist Katie Noonan.

The National Folk Festival in Canberra 2022 was a highlight for Layla as she was honoured to perform a duet with Uncle Archie Roach, and she also won the Promising Young Musician Award.

Layla has been writing songs with ARIA & National Jazz Award winning composer/saxophonist Zac Hurren for her debut EP to be released at the Sunshine Sounds Festival.

Layla's songs emotionally move the audience with her heartfelt lyrics and smooth vocals.

GUBBI GUBBI WELCOME TO COUNTRY

Gubbi Gubbi Dance is a group of indigenous artists and performers. Gubbi Gubbi is the language spoken by the traditional custodians of the area.

Lyndon Davis, a direct descendant of the Gubbi Gubbi people, founded the troupe in 1996, bringing together family members and local young indigenous people to celebrate the dances of their homelands.

They have gained a strong rapport throughout their community taking great pride in their culture and feeling blessed to share their knowledge.

Gubbi Gubbi Dance provides an unforgettable cultural experience. Their magical presentation of song and dance leaves the audience spellbound.
